Website/Publicity: Julie Langlas, co webmaster with Sarah Haven's, said that they are looking for anyone who may have website design experience who would be willing to help. They are currently using an old version of Word Press. Their goal is to make the Website easier to use and ultimately make it the primary site for all members to access to know what is going on within the league. They have plans to work on a redesign over the winter months.

Recognitions: Ann named and recognized all committee chairs.

Reports:

Interclub – Sue Miller told the members that this is a competitive group of lower handicap golfers who compete with other clubs. She stated that they barely won low gross against Gettysvue this year. It is the 8th year in a row that Tellico Village has won. They will be receiving a plaque.

Golf Advisory Committee – Anne Parkhill said that the Golf Committee meets once a month and she is happy to take any concerns that we may have to the meeting. She stated that if we cannot learn our points on Chelsea, we may call Carla Johnson.

Highlights of the Year – Cindy Chalfant thanked everyone for their positive feedback throughout the year. The new game of 2-person better ball was well received. The first Rarity Bay vs Tellico Village Challenge was lots of fun. Tellico Village won this year and will host next year. She reported on the well run Invitational, chaired by Ann Parkhill, and the Member Member, chaired by Brenda McJunkin. We raised $6,000 for Our Place on Give Back Day which was rained out. She reported that we had 6 holes in one. These golfers will receive their cash awards on opening day in 2022.

Awards and Recognitions

➤ Birdies – Kay Patterson stated that we had 259 total birdies this season. The awards for the most birdies went to Teresa Reed from green tees and Stacey Lawson from yellow tees. She announced the members who had a hole-in-one. They are Marti Ellerman, Janet Means, Reba Richmond, Janet Kincaid, Gail Wiggins, and Sue Miller.
